PETITION PURPOSE: Acknowledgment of the Plebeian Tribunal South Africa's constitutional authority and the exposure of legal system fraud documented in this dictionary.

WHY SIGN? - Support constitutional restoration - Acknowledge legal system fraud - Demand transparency in legal proceedings - Protect natural rights and freedoms

ABOUT THE PLEBEIAN TRIBUNAL SOUTH AFRICA

The Plebeian Tribunal South Africa operates under the ancient Roman legal principle of Tribune of the Plebs - a constitutional office with sacrosanct authority to protect the people from government oppression.

Our Mission: - Expose legal system fraud and deception - Restore constitutional government - Protect natural rights and freedoms - Educate the public about legal maxims and principles

Constitutional Authority: - Section 2 of the South African Constitution (Constitutional Supremacy) - Ancient Roman law principles (Tribune of the Plebs) - Natural law and divine justice - International law (Nuremberg Principles)

FOREWORD TO THE LEGAL MAXIMS DICTIONARY

"Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set." - Proverbs 22:28 (KJV)

This comprehensive dictionary compiles legal maxims from ancient Roman law, canon law, and common law traditions. Each maxim represents centuries of legal wisdom, yet many have been corrupted or misapplied by the modern legal system.

SOURCE VERIFICATION: PTR-SA-LMD-2025-MAXIMS-CONSTITUTIONAL-RESEARCH

The maxims are presented with: - Original Latin text - Accurate English translation - Practical legal application - Biblical parallels where applicable - Modern corruption or misuse - Plebeian Tribunal commentary

These ancient principles reveal the fraud of the modern legal system by showing how far it has departed from true justice and natural law.

Ab abusu ad usum non valet consequentia

Translation: "A conclusion about the use of a thing from its abuse is invalid"

Application: The abuse of legal language does not justify its continued misuse. Just because courts misuse legal terms does not make that misuse valid.

Biblical Parallel: "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness" - Isaiah 5:20 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Courts claim that widespread abuse of constitutional rights justifies further abuse.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: This maxim directly supports our position that systematic legal fraud cannot be justified by its widespread practice.

Ab assuetis non fit injuria

Translation: "No harm is done by things to which one has long consented"

Application: Long-standing consent to government actions does not make those actions lawful if they were originally unlawful.

Biblical Parallel: "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind" - Romans 12:2 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Used to justify unconstitutional practices that have become "traditional."

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: The people's ignorance of fraud does not constitute consent to fraud.

Abbreviationum ille numerus et sensus accipiendus est ut concessio non sit inanis

Translation: "Such number and sense must be given to abbreviations that the grant may not be void"

Application: Legal documents must be interpreted to give them meaning, not to void them through technicalities.

Biblical Parallel: "The letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life" - 2 Corinthians 3:6 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Courts use technicalities to void constitutional protections while enforcing government claims.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: Constitutional rights must be interpreted to preserve their protective purpose, not to void them.

Absentem accipere debemus eum qui non est eo loco in quo petitur

Translation: "We must consider absent a person who is not at the place where he is sought"

Application: A person cannot be held liable for actions in places where they were not present.

Biblical Parallel: "At the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established" - Deuteronomy 19:15 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Courts assume jurisdiction over people regardless of their actual presence or consent.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: Jurisdiction requires actual presence or valid consent, not legal fiction.

Baratriam committit qui propter pecuniam justitiam baractat

Translation: "A person is guilty of barratry who sells justice for money"

Application: Judges who profit from their decisions commit barratry.

Biblical Parallel: "And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise" - John 2:16 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: The entire court system operates as a revenue-generating business.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: The profit motive in courts destroys the possibility of impartial justice.

Boni judicis est causas litium dirimere

Translation: "It is the role of a good judge to remove the causes of litigation"

Application: Judges should seek justice and resolution, not perpetuate conflict for profit.

Biblical Parallel: "Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God" - Matthew 5:9 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Courts profit from prolonged litigation and create procedures that increase conflict.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: True judges seek to end disputes, not profit from them.

Boni iudicis est iudicium sine dilatione mandare executioni

Translation: "It is the role of a good judge to deliver judgment without delay for execution"

Application: Justice delayed is justice denied.

Biblical Parallel: "Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil" - Ecclesiastes 8:11 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Courts deliberately delay proceedings to generate more fees and costs.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: Deliberate delay is a form of justice denial and fraud.

Consensus facit legem

Translation: "Consent makes the law"

Application: Law derives its authority from the consent of the governed.

Biblical Parallel: "Choose you this day whom ye will serve" - Joshua 24:15 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Government claims authority without consent of the governed.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: All legitimate government authority must be based on informed consent of the people.

Contemporanea expositio est optima et fortissima in lege

Translation: "Contemporary exposition is the best and strongest in law"

Application: Legal terms should be understood as they were when written, not as redefined by modern courts.

Biblical Parallel: "Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set" - Proverbs 22:28 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Courts constantly reinterpret constitutional language to mean the opposite of its original meaning.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: Constitutional language must retain its original meaning to preserve its protective purpose.

Constructio legis non facit injuriam

Translation: "The construction of the law does not work an injury"

Application: Legal interpretation should not harm those it is meant to protect.

Biblical Parallel: "The law is good, if a man use it lawfully" - 1 Timothy 1:8 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Courts interpret laws to harm the people they were meant to protect.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: Any interpretation that harms the people violates the purpose of constitutional law.

Deceptis, non decipientibus, jura subveniunt

Translation: "The laws help those who are deceived, not those who deceive"

Application: The law should protect victims of fraud, not enable fraudsters.

Biblical Parallel: "Woe unto them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds!" - Micah 2:1 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Courts protect government deception while punishing those who expose it.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: This maxim establishes our authority to protect the people from legal system fraud.

Delegatus non potest delegare

Translation: "A delegate cannot delegate"

Application: Government officials cannot delegate powers they do not possess.

Biblical Parallel: "No man can serve two masters" - Matthew 6:24 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Government agencies delegate authority to private corporations and foreign entities.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: Delegation of non-existent authority is void and fraudulent.

De facto jus oritur

Translation: "From the fact arises the law; the law arises from the fact"

Application: Law should be based on actual facts, not legal fictions.

Biblical Parallel: "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" - John 8:32 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Courts base decisions on legal fictions rather than actual facts.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: Legal fictions cannot override factual reality in legitimate legal proceedings.

Fiat justitia, ruat caelum

Translation: "Let justice be done, though the heavens fall"

Application: Justice must be pursued regardless of consequences.

Biblical Parallel: "Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne" - Psalm 89:14 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Courts compromise justice for political expedience.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: True justice cannot be compromised for any reason, including government convenience.

Fraus omnia vitiat

Translation: "Fraud vitiates everything"

Application: Fraud destroys the validity of any transaction or proceeding.

Biblical Parallel: "A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump" - 1 Corinthians 5:6 (KJV)

Modern Corruption: Courts ignore fraud when it serves government interests.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: This is the foundational principle for declaring all fraudulent legal proceedings void ab initio.

Fraus latet in generalibus

Translation: "Fraud lies hidden in generalities"

Application: Vague language often conceals fraudulent intent.

Biblical Parallel: "But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay" - Matthew 5:37

(KJV)

Modern Corruption: Government uses vague language to conceal the true scope of its powers.

Plebeian Tribunal Commentary: Vague laws that conceal government power are fraudulent and void.
